"Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot," Admission, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

The Western British American says: "The minds of the curious and critical were, of course, impatient to see and hear Miss Tina Crawford, who had been heralded for some time previous as the greatest contralto singer Scotland had yet sprung upon the concert stage. Those who expected great things were not disappointed. Miss Crawford is possessed of a most agreeable presence and enticing manner and ere her first effort had gone far, ingratiated her individuality into the warm regard of her auditors. Her clear singing voice is at once melodious, far-reaching and dispassionate, while the dramatic force infused into the renderings of the various songs professed could not be excelled. Moreover, her songs were given with that sublimity of expression, accuracy of tone and marvelous melody which can only be attained by intense study and a perfect knowledge of the work. Should Miss Crawford elect to again visit Chicago in the near future she may confidently anticipate an audience that will fill the largest hall in the city."

The Niagara Falls Record says: "A large and appreciative audience attended the concert in city hall last night. Miss Agnes Hyde fully sustained her splendid reputation, and responded to repeated encores. It is safe to say that she stands pre-eminent in her chosen profession, and may always feel assured of a hearty welcome to Niagara Falls."

"IT'S TWINS."

Allen Abbott Passing Out Wadsworth Bros' Chico Cigars to His Friends.

Happy man; it's twins. Happy friends; he's passing out Chico cigars.

Allen Abbott has kept the clerks at C. H. Kendrick & Co.'s busy filling his orders for Wadsworth Bros' Chicos the last twenty-four hours, as the arrival of twins at his house has brought a host of friends around with congratulations, and nothing will do but "have a cigar."

Whether it's the arrival of twins, a smoke on the porch, or solid enjoyment at the ball game, or while walking or driving, no cigar fills the bill better than Wadsworth Bros' Chicos, sold by C. H. Kendrick & Co.

These cigars have a long Havana filler, and, while they sell for five cents, are better than most cigars retailed at double the money.

Don't miss the pleasure of smoking a Chico. Get some today and see how good they are.
